KELLY AND SMITHERMAN AT-TENDED BOYS' STATE

Agee Kelly, '52-'53 president of Student Council, attended Boys' State this summer in Tuscaloosa. Kenneth Smitherman, '52-'53 vice-president of Student Council was the second representative from Montevallo.

Boys' State is an American Legion sponsored event held each year to give leadership training to outstanding boy students over the state of Alabama.

While at Boys'
State, the boys saw some of the University of Alabama campus and made a trip to Montgomery.

Agee was sponsored by the Rotary Club of Montevallo and Kenneth was sponsored by the American Legion.

TWO ATTENDED GIRLS'

Joy Holcombe and Eleanor Mitchell attended Girls' State at Huntingdon College in Montgomery this summer.

There were more than two hundred girls from all over the state at this tenth annual session of Girls' State. Both Eleanor and Joy said they enjoyed Girls' State very much and learned a lot about the government.

DRIVER INSTRUCTION ADDED AT MONTEVALLO

A driver-training course has been added to the course of study at Montevallo High School for the first time in the school history.

Instructor Trained

Mr. S. A. Seegers, math instructor, attended a special school for instructors of drivereducation this summer at the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa.

Six students have enrolled in the course.

They are James Cummings, Mignon Daily, Beverly Doyle, Norma Jo Evans, Peggy McDaniel, and Bill Norris.

BAND PERFORMS

On last Friday night the band put on a fine performance for their first appearance this year. They entered the and from that, formed an apple tree while playing "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree". Next they made a baseball diamond and played "Take me out to the Ball Game". Then they formed a school house and played "School Days". After that they made a football and played a peppy football march. After marching across the fie field, they formed a "T" for Thompson and played "Junior Warden" for the visitors.

The last formation before the home crowd was in the shape of an "M" from which they played the traditional Montevallo "Alma Mater".

The cheerleaders assisted the majorettes in making the formations and performing their antics.

Frankly, you boys and girls are "putting us through the paces" -- there are so many of you, seven hundred thirty-five to be exact. It is real work to plan classes for forty "live wires." KELLYGRAMS by Agee Kelly

I am happy to be a able to write an article for the first issue of the Spotlight of 1952-53.

We are very fortunate to have a Student Association of which every one of us is a The Student member. Association is governed by the Student Council which each of you help's Through our elect. Student Association we are able to be a part of democracy in action, by having a voice in our school and taking part in elections.

Our Student Council sponsors many activities—a few of which are homecoming, the Spotlight Carnival, the rockola for dancing in the auditorium and the supply store. The income from the store goes to buy new equipment for the school.

One of the chief purposes of the Student Council is to improve school spirit. This is a job with which all can help. By improving school spirit we don't mean merely more cheering at the ball

BULLDOG GROWLS

As most of you who have attended MHS before know, the school spirit has been low. But this year let's do something about it. Montevallo has a beautifully reconditioned athletic field and one thousand new seats added to the bleachers. We, the students of MHS, should be proud of of this because it is certainly a great improvement over last year. These new seats will make room for all atudents who wish to attend the school's athletic events. Supporting such activities is one way in which to increase school spirit.

Have you ever stopped to think that every MHS athlete has to pass three subjects in order to stay on the team and that the band members don't have to worry about such failures?

It certainly is nice not to be crammed up at a table when we eat at the new cafe-teria.

The Student Council is here for your good, and it is my sincere wish for you to take an active part in it through your representatives. The Council gives you a chance to take a very active part in the school program. Let's all make use of this opportunity and make this the best year our Student Council and school have ever had

"WHAT'S UP FOLKS?"

It surely was fine to see a lot of bright, happy faces on Monday, September 8. Everybody looked so wide awake and ready to go to work (sad word.).

Wonder what our "ole" MHS'ers have been doing this summer? A lot of them have taken trips.

Kenneth Smitherman has really been traveling this summer -- all the way to Hollywood. Some trip, I'd say. He went to visit his cousin in Clanton. he says.

Sue Boyd became a Yankee for about two months this summer. She visited her aunt in Chicago.

Lee Woolley spent his summer working as a camp councilor at Camp Mac near Talledega.

Joanna Sharp, Frances Klotzman, Joy Holcomb, Triplett, Jade Higgins and Marcia Trumbauer attended a band convention in Auburn for a week in August. say that they learned a little and had a lot of fun.

The folks who have stayed at home have been busy too. Patty Davis won the girls' tennis championship and Billy Allen, a visitor from Hot Springs, Ark., took the boys' cup after a hard game with Agee Kelly. Gayle Jones and Billy Allen came out on top in the doubles tournament.

Everybody seems to have gotten cars during the summer. The Bobby Joe Thomas mobile, the Don Hicks mobile and the "Bunch" Lawley one are all new since last year. Lucky gents.

"WHAT'S UP?" (Continued I hear Martha Jane Mahaffey got rich quick by baby sitting.

The elementary building surely has the new look. We have three interior decorators in M.H.S. who were responsible for this. They are Calvin Hatcher, "Weed" Jeter, and Charles Daviston.

Well, that's all the news I can think of for now.

See you at the game

The Bulldogs held the Lions scoreless during the third quarter, but the Lions roared back in the fourth for a third touchdown. The conversion was good and the game ended 19-0.

WARRIORS DOWN BULLDOGS

Montevallo lost the second game of the season last Friday to the Thompson Warriors 21-12.

The Bulldogs got off to a bad start by fumbling on the kickoff. Thompson scored a few moments later. The try for the point was good.

It certainly is nice to see all the new faces here at M. H. S. We students who have been here before want to extend our welcome to all of the Jr. I's and students who have transferred from various other schools. Here is the opinion of our school by a student who came here for the first time this year.

"What I think of M.H.S."

When school opened on September 8, I came to Montevallo High School from Bibb County High School in Centerville. My first impression of the school was that I would enjoy attending school in Montevallo.

The students seem very friendly when I meet them in the hall. The faculty members are all very nice and they give everyone in class the chance to express his thoughts.

Remember that Homecoming is only a few weeks off (Calera game). So get busy now and have your ideas for clever floats ready.

KELLYCRAMS By Agee Kelly

It's important to be on time for assembly. When all of us are on time, our assemblies are much better. There isn't anyone to distract from the program, the people on the program can do their parts much better, and we get more out of the program when we see and hear all of it. I feel that we can be on time very easily by coming straight to the auditorium without loitering or stopping to swap gossip items with our best friend after the bell rings. Let's all be on time and get the most out of our assembly programs. Lees committee

I want to commend everyone of you who has backed our football team even though we have been on the short end of the score three times. It helps the team to know that you are behind us and pulling for us. I'm sure any player on the team will tell you that it's easier to play when there is a crowd cheering for you than it is to play before a silent group of spectators. Our cheering has been very good so far, so keep it up and cheer the team on to victory.

You tell what you are by Alma Nichols were both the friends you seek, By the manner in which you always speak, By the kind of clothes you delight to wear, By the moments in life that make you care.

You tell what you are in more ways than one By the things it takes to complete your fun. So there is really no reason or sense, In an effort to put on a false pretense.

WHAT'S UP FOLKS?

Hi! I know you are all feeling fine and of school. Speaking of week, I picked up a bit of information I think you will be interested in. Did you know that five days of school would make one "weak"?

The Vincent Yellow Jackets tied the Montevallo Bulldogs after a hard-fought battle by both teams on the local field last Friday night.

Montevallo received the kickoff and drove to Vincent's one-yard line but fumbled and Vincent recovered.

The Bulldogs scored in the latter part of the first quarter when Galloway ran around right end for 10 yards to score the touchdown. Gentry went off tackle to make the extra point good.

Gentry tallied the second touchdown in the second quarter on a "quickie" to the right. This made the score 13-0.

VINCENT TIES (Cont'd)

Vincent marched straight to pay dirt after Montevallo kicked off at the beginning of the second half. The conversion was good.

The fourth quarter was a punting duel between the two teams, both fighting hard for a score. The final whistle stopped Vincent's hard drive on the five-yard line.

WHAT ABOUT EDITORIALS

Littlefield

People have many ideas about editorials -- what they should be, how they should be written and what their objectives should be. Editorials may have to do with anything in life; with whatever may be of human concern or interest. Some conceptions of the editorial emphasize strong "stand-taking". Some emphasize more the objective, informative treatment of different problems. Both kinds can be effective, and there are times for each type. There are also editorials which aim to be merely light and entertaining.

There are editorials of praise as well as of condemnation. There are pieces of reflection which may try to suggest a philosophy. In brief, there are all kinds of editorials, good, bad and indifferent, in idea execution.

Many people, no doubt, have thought of the editorial as trying to "tell" people what to think, what to do. We doubt, if many good editorial writers have any such idea. Rather they conceive of the presentation of the ideas and convictions as a contribution to the reader's

BULLDOG GROWLS

"Let's make this year an outstanding one by having fine school spirit." was one big goal we set up at the beginning of school. The school spirit committee should be commended for making a success of homecoming week. Now, let's keep that spirit high and support our team by coming to the game tonight. Remember there's a dance following the game. This dance is sponsored by the Sr. II class.

FREEDOM FOUND By Frankie Lucas

As the Mayflower sailed over the briny deep, the Pilgrims sought rest and peace from the continuous rocking of the ship. Some stood or sat around the deck while others found sleep comforting. All were roused when a joyous shout went up from the people, "Land, land, at last, land!"

The ship pulled along the coast-the shore curved out, meeting their course and our adventurous forefathers set forth on the shore of a new land, the place now called Plymouth Rock.

The Pilgrims wandered about the forest which was thickly set with pine and cedar trees, the discontented ocean beating everlasting green sea foam against the dark steel-gray rocks. Drinking in the new smell of sweet cedar, pine needles, stinging ocean water, and the warm sand of the shore, the people settled down for their first night in the land of freedom.

Dear Editor:

Various other schools have clubs such as Hi-Y, Beta Club, and the National Honor Society. Unfortunately our school does not have a chapter of an honor society To of any form. many of us who work here, this lack is one very keenly felt. I, for one advocate the organization of a chapter of one of the widely-known groups of this kind. These clubs are recognized by the intelligentia, and to be a member of one is indeed an honor and a privilege.

There are many reasons for our having some method of awarding excellence in our studies. We give letters to players who excel in sports. Why not let people who show proficiency in other things have a chance at the laurel wreaths?

One reason for having an honor society is the prestige that it lends to its members and the school.

QUIET IN THE LIBRARY

To make our school better this year we must have "quiet" in the library! Most of us have a study hall, during which usually we go to the library. But do we go to study This is or to talk? the one period in the day that we have to get assignments and we should take advantage of it. If we have no studying for the day, we should have a little consideration for the other people and be The librarian has enough to do without having to call people down all period, every period.

TRUTH OR GOSSIP?

There is a tendency among teenagers to gossip. What starts as a harmless story often grows until it really hurts someone. (Cont'd p. 5)

BULLDOG GROWLS

As the football season ends and basketball begins, wonder how many M.H.S. students will be present at the games? Coach says he is expecting a fair basketball season this year.

Have you noticed in the lunchroom that some students eat very little that is put on their plates? Perhaps you are one of these students. If you are, did you know that maybe someone else would like more to eat than they were given? Actually, this is happening each day in the cafeteria. One way to solve this problem is to take only the amount you plan to eat, so that someone else can have what you don't want.

Did you notice the interesting display on the bulletin board in the foyer during Book Week? Besides being attractive, it was very helpful. We should commend our librarian for such an attractive display.

KELLYGRAMS

Thanksgiving holidays are here at last. Four whole days of freedom--isn't that wonderful?

Speaking of songs, three cheers for the new dance band headed by Johnny Z with his trumpet. The other four members of the band are Calvin Hatcher with his fiddle; Gayle Jones at the piano; Jane Triplett, sax; and Elbert Mahaffey, trumpet. Sounds like "hot" music.

The boys seem to have taken a sudden liking to dancing-thanks to the P.E. department. Hurrah, for all concerned!

You had better keep out of the way of Joe Woolley, Billy Joe Pickett and Billy Wood or you may get hit with a yo-yo.

Well, so long, folks. Have a big time during the holidays and don't eat too much turkey.

Have you been guilty of doing "it" without thinking? Many of us have. You can see the results of "it" any day you care to look. The best time for a peek is after the break or after lunch. The re-

after lunch. The result of "it" is very obvious. All you must do to see this result is to open your eyes.

The saddest thing is that you and I can prevent "it", but we don't. You wouldn't do "it" at home and school is your second home for you spend one-fourth of your time here. If it weren't done we would all enjoy our surroundings more. All we need to do to stop "it" is to think and remind each other not to be so careless.

This "it" is throwing paper on the floor in the halls and class rooms. It can be stopped completely by using the wastebaskets provided for all waste paper. Our school's appearance would be greatly improved by keeping paper off the floor, so let's do it.

They marched on with a snappy entrance then formed a trumpet and played "Star Dust" with Johnny Ziolkowski taking the lead. They marched across the field and formed a "C" for Childersburg, then back to Montevallo's side where they played the alma mater.

For their last number they formed a football and played "So Long for a While."

THANKSGIVING 1952
By Sr. I English Class
On this Thanksgiving

Day we remember to be thankful,

Thankful for our many opportunities, advantages and blessings.

We give thanks for our parents.

Their loving, feeding and caring for us.

For our homes where we can

Share the work and play. We are thankful for our schools

And the training we get there.

For the hope we have in Our government and the future.

For the right to read The Literature of our choice

And the privilege to choose within certain limits,

The occupation we wish to follow.

We give thanks that the people in our country

Are not persecuted for their religion,

And that we are free and equal

And do not have a dictator for a leader.

Last of all, we are thankful for this holiday,

Inherited from our Pilgrim Fathers.

who would be blessed and happy should be
from the first a partaker of the truth, that he may live a true man as long as possible, for then he can be trusted."

If teenagers adopted the quotation from Plato as their motto, perhaps there might be fewer cliques in high schools and fewer friendships broken by idle talk; perhaps the world as a whole might be a better place in which to live.

TRUE CHRISTMAS

In many respects the true, sacred meaning of Christmas has been swept aside and is being replaced by our modern schemes that tend to sever reverence completely from the holy day.

We are prone to regard the gift and the giver higher than we esteem the Gift of Gifts. We have changed the holy day to a holiday by celebrating it with a feast as if it were our own birthday rather than Christ's.

Eight reindeer pulling Santa's sleigh have replaced the shepherds tending the sheep on a starcanopied hilltop. The Prince of Peace's counsel has been ignored in preference to man-made councils in hope of peace.

We have exchanged the Wise Men's star for the bright colored lights of the city. Crowded department stores and busy streets

KELLYGRAMS By Agee Kelly

Every year at this time our thoughts turn to Christmas. In the excitement of thinking of our friends, relatives, gifts and the spiritual meaning of Christmas, we are sometimes inclined to forget those who are less fortunate than we are. Each year we are offered a wonderful opportunity to help these people by way of the Christmas box project sponsored by the Senior class. These boxes are given to worthy families through the Welfare Department.

By now each homeroom has started collecting items for its box. If you haven't brought something for the box, you should do so next week. It is very important that you fill these boxes, for without them some family may have to be without some of the things they need to have a good Christmas.

Merry Christmas to all!

BULLDOG GROWLS

Christmas holidays are just around the corner. This year, in the midst of all the Christmas festivities, let us remember the real meaning of Christmas. Congratu-lations to the Sr. III Democracy Class for sponsoring a "toy" project for the needy children, and to the Senior Class also for their Christmas baskets project.

Did you know that the Sixteenth Annual Essay and Oratorical Contests sponsored by the American Legion aren't too far off? In fact, the school contest will be held on or before February 1, 1953. Keep this in mind and make plans to take part.

Don't you think it would be a good idea to line up on the inside of the cafeteria in rainy weather?

There's good entertainment in store for everyone tomorrow night. Make plans to (Continued p. 4)

THE WEEK BEFORE CHRISTMAS

'Twas the week before Christmas, and all through the school

Not a pupil was working -- as was usually the rule The girls were all huddled like lambs in a stew Discussing their boy friends and what they would do: Each secretly hoping some innocent spy Would casually hint what her "steady" should 🍇

The boys in the hall stood lazily looking, Pretending no interest in whatever was cooking, But each was mentally counting his pennies And wondering if stationary wouldn't be plenty. And everyone was whispering about who had 🌼 drawn whose name And how every year his own luck was the same. The rooms were all spicy with cedar and pine And the girls kept reminding about mistletoe

With sprigs in their hair, and smiles in their eyes.

They were daring their boy friends to take them by surprise.

Then all of a sudden there arose such a clatter They ran to the auditorium to see what was the matter;

And what should their wandering eyes pounce on But Mr. Young and the band getting ready to perform!

With a toot, toot here, and a tweet, tweet

Now all together with a Christmasy blare. But the next period bell sounds loudly at last And they all saunter into that last period class.

But ere they all leave the familiar halls Let them shout "Merry Christmas" for each and for all. .....Mrs. W.H.T.

SENIOR REVIEW

WHAT'S UP FOLKS? It's Christmas time at last, and nearly everyone has that good ole Christmas Spirit.

Coach Fisher's home room is planning a big party complete with a tree, refreshments and presents. Speaking of presents, Dan Weaver seems to have a new way of drawing Christmas names. He says, "Draw 'em all, then keep the one you want."

The fifth period Home Ec class makes mighty fine fruit cakes so I hear. Hint!

Those clerical aptitude tests some of us took last week were really rough. Glad I don't have to take one every day.

TRUE CHRISTMAS (Cont) have taken the place of that calm, peaceful "Silent Night" of ancient Bethlehem.

The spirit of love and the joy of giving have been overwhelmed by selfish motives and merrymaking. Christmas has become "Xmas" to many, letting the letter "X" substitute for Christ.

Until we reawaken the true spirit of Christmas--putting the "Christ" back into Christmas and acknowledge the Prince of Peace as "Counsellor", our efforts are to no avail in effecting the angelic message of "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

"ARE YOU A PARASITE"

In study hall the other day several students came in to borrow some ink. Each day students call on some one else for paper, ink and pencils, things they should buy for themselves.

To borrow one sheet of paper would not be a hardship on some people, but when we borrow something every day, it all adds up.

When students say they want to borrow a sheet of paper, they usually intend to pay it back, but seldom ever do they do this!

Why do students borrow and what do we mean when we say the word "borrow"?

There are a lot of reasons for borrowing -selfishress, thought-ILESSness and laziness. Are you guilty?

WHAT DID INAUGURATION MEAN TO YOU?

If someone asked you, "hat did inauguration mean to you?", your reply would probably be the short and simple one, "Why, a new president came into office, of course." Well, this is true, but did you ever stop to think about it? Inauguration Day means more than that to us as individual citizens. It is the big event that happens once every four years. This year, however, it was somewhat different. With President Dwight D. Eisenhower came a change of government--from Democratic to Republican.

What have we, the people, to look forward to in the years ahead? One thing is certain. Inflation is scheduled to drop in 1953. A change to American citizens, yes, but will it also mean a change in our schools?

Remember--A little nome work can go a long vay toward making that report card easier to carry home!

KELLYGRAMS By Agee Kelly

With our second semester beginning have you ever thought why you come to school? This question may have many answers, if it is answered casually; but when you come down to business, we are all here for an education. This education cannot be obtained merely by sitting in the classroom day after day. There is a certain amount of preparation that must be done for every class. It cannot be done by playing around and wasting time in class and in study hall.

You may be preparing to be a farmer, teacher, miner, secretary, doctor or to follow some other work. Whichever of these you are planning to do, your high school record is very important to you. Not only your grades are important but also the attitude you take toward your work. The next time you have homework remember your high school record follows you the rest of your life.

BULLDOG GROWLS

Have you made plans to enter the American Legion's sixteenth annual Essay and Oratorical Contest? The school contest will be held on February 1, 1953. Sure hope this hasn't slipped up on you!

Did you notice the very unusual water color designs on the bulletin board in the foyer last week? This display was made by the Art Department.

It has been voiced among many students lately, and it certainly is a good question. Why don't we have more assemblies?

Are you guilty of loitering in the halls after the bell has rung for class? If you are, then do something about it before some-one else has to:

Cheering at the basketball games has been pretty good this year, but occasionally we hear "jeering" instead of 'theering."
You can cheer our boys on without throwing off on the other side. Be a good sport!

STOP, LOOK AND NOTICE!

"What would you do if you could run MHS for one day?" This is the question asked of eleven students.

Nearly everyone agreed to have shorter working hours. Jane Triplett said, "I'd have a longer break and shorter periods." Ann Poole and Peggy Edwards thought they would do the same as Jane.

Martha Jane Mahaffey was a little more specific. She wants an hour and a half for lunch and an hour for recess. Calvin Hatcher would start school at 9 a.m. and dismiss at high noon.

Ann Bice only asks a longer lunch hour, but Ruth Allen would have an all day dance party.

An ideal school, in Dan Weaver's opinion, would allow everyone to do just as he saw fit all day.

Alton Smitherman and Lou Ella Burdette had very different ideas on the subject. Alton, big hearted thing, would give everybody a vacation, including teachers. Lou would have the students and teachers change places for the day. (I'll bet she would really give some one a time.)

Here is a strange one. Nell wouldn't have the job of running MHS! She said, "I'd let somebody else worry with it." (I guess it is a pretty big problem.)

ROBERT E. LEE

On January 19 we celebrated General Robert E.Lee's birthday. When thinking of General Lee, an old Chinese proverb comes to mind; "The glory is not in never failing. but in rising every time you fail." To the people throughout the United States -- not only in the South, but in the North as well--General Lee is remembered for his great soldiering in the Confederate Army during the Civil War. But let us not look to Lee the soldier, to Lee the strategist, to Lee the victorious; but to a greater Lee--Lee, the defeated. The devotion of the South to him was greater in the hour of defeat than that of victory. It has been said that Napoleon was adored by the men of France but hated by the women. This wasn't true with Lee; no one ever received more evidence of devotion than the defeated general.

Today we have schools named after him and his military tactics are studied by men in military academies throughout the world.

When you think of Robert E. Lee, think of the great general whose glory was not in "never failing", but in "rising when he failed."

"Keep your eyes on the big things you expect to do, but don't forget the little ones." WHAT'S UP FOLKS?

I'm back again with the low down on what is happening around here.

The juniors are really making big plans for the Prom, and the seniors will have to do some mighty slick sleuthing if they hope to unearth the secret of the theme before May 8. Speaking of dances, the majorettes seem very excited over the square dance they are having February 7.

Everyone in school certainly enjoyed Mr. Argun's visit here. We really learned a lot from him. The bad part of it was that his visit was just too short.

Three band members who attended a contest in Fairfield Saturday are Sigrid Lund, Marcia Trumbauer and Johnny Ziolkowski. They were judged and recordings of their work were sent to the University of Alabama. If any are chosen they will play in the All-State band in March.

That's all for now. See you again in two weeks.

TOURNAMENT

MODERN BASKETBALL By Coach Fisher Basketball has come a long way since I played the game. high school game score looked more like a modern day baseball score 12-8, etc. It is nothing unusual for a high school team to score 60 or 75 points and colleges to run over the 100 mark. What is the reason for this change? I would like to list a few:

1. More boys playing the game in junior high school and YMCA.

2. Better coaching throughout nation.

3. Better equipment and better gyms.

4. Set pattern used instead of "rough-it" type.

5. More emphasis put on offense than on defense.

6. Using the fast break on every chance. If men are covered, settling down to set plays.

7. Books, television, radio and the movies stirring up more interest and knowledge of the game.

SPORTS CASTING

Coach Fisher says
"It's time to get in shape." Some of the boys don't agree, however, about the third lap of the mile. The relays started with the 100-yard dash, then came the 240, one lap, the half-mile, and the mile.

HOW ABOUT THE MONTH SHORT IN DAYS?

"Government of the people, by the people and for the people, shall not perish from the earth" are the famous words we remember from Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Yes, yesterday,
February 12, was the birthday of the sixteenth president. A man of integrity, patriotism, and great ability, Abraham
Lincoln set a good example for us when he said, "The things I want to know are in Every first grader knows that two of the greatest presidents of the United States, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, were born in February. However, how many know that still another president, William Henry Harrison (ninth) was born the same month?

Any month would be proud to claim Thomas Edison, whose inventions were beneficial not only to Americans, (Continued P. 4)

KELLYGRAMS By Agee Kelly Our school is a place we should be proud of. We should keep the building clean and nice all the time. We can do this by thinking before we act. The next time you start to drop a piece of paper; write on a desk, wall or window facing; cut a desk, shoot basketball with your street shoes on, or put something in a water fountain, think. You know you should not do any of these things, but you just don't think about do-

We spend one-fourth of our time each weekday here at school. This time will be much more pleasantly spent if we will take care of our school property. If everyone works together, we can improve our surroundings. This will help us do better work in the classroom and give us cause to enjoy our building and grounds much more. If we take care of our school, we can point to it with pride.

VALENTINE DAY
February 14 is a day for lovers. In England, France and Scotland, during Medieval times, young people got together on Saint Valentine's Eve to draw names by chance from an urn. Each person then became the
"valentine" or special friend of the one whose name he drew.

It is customary on this date to exchange gifts as an expression of affection.

Chaucer and the Medieval writers spoke of Valentine's Day as the day when the birds mated. In Shakespeare's "Hamlet", one of Ophelia's songs goes:

"Tomorrow is Saint
Valentine's DayAll in the morning
betime,
And I a maid at your window,
To be your valentine."

WHAT'S UP, FOLKS?

Hi, have you got Spring fever, too?

Lots of folks here at MHS seem to be suffering from that disease. Two of the worst cases seem to be Charles Elliott and Sigrid Lund. They have severe cases!

The seniors have at last chosen their play--The Late Christopher Bean--to be given March 27.

Have you seen Lois Hoffman's new Henry J, and Pat Kelly's Ford convertible. My, things are really happening fast.

The band's square dance last Saturday night really went off in a big way. Don't forget the one this Saturday--sponsored by the Lions Club this time.

A new jitterbug step has hit hard. Enough people have asked Frances Klotzman and Lois Hoffman to teach it to them to start a jitterbugging school.

Have a happy Valentine's Day tomorrow!

Suzie Stition awoke with a start bright and early on the morn of Friday, the 13th. Like all superstitious people she thought this was the unluckiest day in all the year.

Just then a rooster crowed right outside her door. "Oh, no", Suzie thought, "somebody is coming to spend the day I'd better get up and go to town for groceries.

As Suzie walked cautiously down the street, a black cat darted across her path. Suzie quickly turned around and went another way, but that wouldn't even keep away all the bad luck, for while she had been watching the cat she had stepped on a sidewalk line and walked under a ladder. "Oh, how horrible", thought Suzie. "I can't see how I'll ever live through the day." She wondered if she would be opening umbrellas in the house or counting cars in a funeral procession before the day was over.

As Suzie walked in the grocery store she saw a woman spill salt on the floor. "Quick," said Suzie, "throw some over your left shoulder." Suzie walked away without waiting to see if the woman would obey for it is bad luck to wait to see if your advice is heeded.

Suzie's right hand began to itch. "Oh, my," said Suzie to herself, "I'll get a letter today, but I

"Stop!" yelled Suzie. "If you cut his nails before he is one month old he will steal.

At home again Suzie sat down on her old trunk to think. She thought, I will have to avoid breaking mirrors, turning a chair round on one leg and rocking an empty rocking chair.

Suddenly Suzie jumped up. She had just noticed where she was sitting. Sitting on a trunk meant disappointment.

Poor Suzie! All this was too much. She collapsed and fell across her bed.

WEARIN' OF THE GREEN

Wear something green and the shamrock on March 17 to get in the spirit of the day known as St. Patrick's Day.

This Irish tradition dates back to Ireland 432 when Pope Celestine sent St.

Patrick to Ireland to convert the Irish to Christianity. His labors were so miraculously successful that he came to be known as the one who found "Ireland all heathen and left it all Christian." There he founded over 300 churches and baptized over 120,000 people.

In preaching to the Irish, St. Patrick chose the shamrock as his emblem and made the three leaves symbolic of the Trinity.

One of the most important things we must learn in life is to be a good sport. We learn to be a good sport by practicing sportsmanship in every game we play--in everything we do. The place we most frequently play games is school, therefore, we learn to be good or bad sports at school.

What makes one a good sport is a question that comes to our mind. A good sport is fair, honest and just in all the sports he plays or watches. A good sport is a good loser and a gracious winner. He learns to take a defeat as easily as he does a win.

Sportsmanship or the lack of it is not displayed by the people

well. The next time you attend a game, remember you are representing your school as

WHAT GOD GAVE
Although it's rainy,
dark and gloomy,
To me the day is fair,
For everything here on

Is what God has to

He gave us the flowers.
He gave us the breeze

Jr. II SUCCESS AND YOU (Cont. from p. 2) they were never satisfied with what they achieved but kept working for something that was greater. Take writers for example, when they write a best seller, a book that they can call a success. What happens? The writer doesn't say to himself, "I've become a national success. My goal is accomplished." But he usually sets out to write something else -- something just as good or better.

Success is a challenge to you, the individual; but whether you will accept the challenge and strive to do your best with the knowledge you have put to use, is left up to you.

WABBLING WORDS

"Wabble, wabble, wabble; I have used that word three times in the last two sentences of my theme," I noticed. "I'll just have to find a synonym to use in its place," I decided. Miss Walker wouldn't approve of three "wabbles."

Fage 5

First I looked up "wabble" in the dictionary. There I found a synonym--"vacillate." Oh, oh, I thought. I'll have to look that up, too. When I found "vacillate" the dictionary said, "To fluctuate." "Oh, no! Here we go again." I crossed my fingers, hoped for the best and looked up "fluctuate." It said, "to vacillate", so I was right back where I started from.

After sitting and thinking for about 30 minutes and getting no-where, I noticed a Thesaurus on the table. "This is just what I need," thought I. "After all, what is a Thesaurus for if not to find

First I looked up
"wabble," but it wasn't there; so I looked up
"fluctuation"--"vacillation!" "Oh, no! It up and used "wabble" three times with the hope that Miss Walker would understand.

AUSTINVILLE WINS TITLE
In the finals of

In the finals of the state tournament held in Tuscaloosa last week, Austinville defeated Town Creek for the "A" championship. THE GAME, BASEBALL

Baseball originated with the Knickerbocker Club, organized in New York in 1845. The first match game of baseball was played in 1846 when a group of players calling themselves "The New York Nine" challenged the Knickerbockers to a game for a dinner.

The challengers won by a score of 21-1. At that time the game ended when the first team made 21 points.

After this, teams started springing up and by 1858, 25 organized teams were playing in and around New York city.

The next stage of development was in 1869 when the first professional team was organized--the Cincinnati "Red Stockings."

The National Association of Professional Baseball Players was organized in 1871 by the members of ten teams. However, only eight of the teams finished the season.

Gambling, drinking, and "throwing" games brought on a crisis in 1875. At this time, the National League was formed as a result of a movement by W. A. Hurbert and A.G. Spald-

Now the principal event in professional baseball is the World Series, a series of games played between the top teams of the National League and the American League (founded in 1900.)

March 20 ended another nine weeks.
This means there are only nine more weeks until the end of this school year. Nine more weeks to really buckle down to those

if you were one of those who, shall we say, didn't do too
well, last quarter.

Have you ever compared a school year to a horse race? Probably you haven't, but let's pretend a school year is like a horse race and we, the students are the horses.

We are lined up for the start and with the bell, we're off. In the first quarter we have some leading with a few A's, and as we go into the second quarter, some are dropping behind because of those F's. Now we have ended the third quarter; the race is getting closer with C's and B's.

KELLYGRAMS

By Agee Kelly
This week every homeroom has begun its plans for our largest
all-school activity, SCHOOL DAZE. This year's program has been designed to include every student in high school. It will be a two-day activity which will need the full cooperation of everyone.

Its success depends on you, the students, for its every activity is put on and planned by you. In working on your homeroom's show, I hope that you will put your actions and best ideas into operation. It will involve much work after school as well as the other time you are given to work during school hours. You will be able to get a great deal from this program if you put something in it.

SCHOOL DAZE is a time when we must all work together to produce the most worth-while program possible. We can make this year's (Cont'd page 4)

Bulldog Growls A good many of our students are guilty of driving without licenses -- some are too young to even acquire them. Are you one of the guilty ones? If you are, stop and think. You are not only endangering your own life but the lives of others as well. If you are too young to get a license, then, don't drive. If you are of the proper age, go about it in the proper manner and get that license now! Join hands with safety!

Once again the students of MHS are engaged in planning and preparing for the "Spotlight Carnival", this year known as "School Daze." More work than ever will be required on the part of each student in order to make this two-day event a successful one. Remember to turn in your plans before March 31.

WHAT'S UP, FOLKS?
Just think, no more school for four whole days except for the seniors. I hope they don't have to work too hard, but I'm really looking forward to the senior play.

The Centreville skating rink is a very popular place lately. Dorvin R. and Mary Sue C. had an especially good time last Saturday night.

Everyone seems to be pretty excited about cheerleader and majorette tryouts. It's too bad that everyone who goes out can't win, isn't it? Anyway, here's hoping for a good selection of both.

Doris Cunningham

We are glad to have Ken Maxwell in school.

that the movie "Ivanhoe" was worthwhile,
all students were given an opportunity to see

THE STORY OF LOSEY FORGET

Losey Forget was an absent-minded pupil instead of an absent-minded professor. She forgot to set her alarm clock at night so by the time her mother woke her up in the morning she had about 10 minutes to catch her bus.

As the bus stopped in front of her house, she swished out the door without her books or locker key. When she scurried up the bus steps and slumped down in a seat, she noticed that everyone was staring at her. While looking herself over to make sure that nothing was amiss, her hand touched her head. Bobby pins! At once she began to take her hair down, but she had forgotten her comb so it would just have to stay kinked until she could borrow one.

When Losey got to school she met Joan. "Did you make my poster?" asked Joan. She was running for cheerleader. "Oh, no! I completely forgot about it."

In history Losey remembered that her mother had told her to get two bars of soap at the store. She knew that somehow she would have to remember that. She looked around for something to make her remember. She saw a string lying on the desk next to hers. Quickly she tied it around her finger. "Now, I'll remember."

When third period came, Losey went to Phys ed. She had already dressed in gym clothes before she realized that this was third period instead of fourth and she was supposed to be

BE A BULLDOG BOOSTER! ATTEND BASEBALL GAMES!

TEACHERS OF THE WEEK Miss Ella Peters, secretary of Montevallo High School, was born at Columbiana, Alabama. She was a pupil in a two-room, one-teacher elementary school on the site of Alice Boyd Building. She finished her education at Alabama College, Eastman Business College at Poughkeepsie, New York, and Columbia Univer-After that, sity. she taught for 12 years at Alabama College. She worked for Alabama Power Company in Birmingham before coming to Montevallo High School.

Miss Peters likes to make scrapbooks for the Crippled Children's Clinic. She enjoys all types of pictures, music and bookkeeping (believe it or not.).

Miss Peters told the following story as a joke on herself:

"Recently, I typed an order to the Business Office at Alabama College for, what I intended, 100 one-cent stamps. When the messenger returned with such a quantity, I examined the order and found that the addition of one little naught to 100 makes 1000."

Does anyone need a one-cent stamp?

All afternoon Losey Forget tried to remember what that string meant tied around her finger. She even stayed at school thirty minutes after the bell rang trying to think what it meant. When she got home late that afternoon her mother asked, "Losey, where's the soap?"

So poor Losey had to walk all the way to the store. When she got home it was bed time, and again Losey forgot to set her clock. So ended a day in the life of Losey Forget.

Mr. V.T. Young, band director, has announced that tryouts for majorettes will be held March 30 at the regular band period.

Candidates already announced are Tommie Poole, Sigrid Lund, Patricia Lawrence, Emma Latimer, Faye Tillery, Frances Klotzman, Jade Higgins and Dorvin Roden.

STATE PREP ATHLETIC PULSE BEATS STRONGLY (Information from Birmingham News, March 22, 1953--

According to Mr. Cliff Harper, secretary of Alabama High School Athletic Association, there were 268 schools in Alabama that had football teams last year (77.9%). Every school in Alabama had a basketball team, and 289 or 84% of the schools had baseball teams.

The greatest weaknesses in athletics as
Mr. Harper sees them are: Need for more gyms not only for competitive sports but for the whole phys ed program; and under-emphasis of spring sports (track, tennis, and baseball.)

"Before we started the play-offs to determine a state champion (in baseball) in 1948 we had about 35 teams. Last year we had 289 teams."

BULLDOG GROWLS (Cont'd) and ag boys could get together and cook a chicken dinner. That's what they did last week.

Lately we have been careless about throwing paper on the floor. Along with the mud we bring in on our feet, this paper makes a sightly mess. Watch it.

Have you noticed the attractive bulletin board displays in the foyer on "Birds of Alabama" and "Song Birds". This is very appropriate for the observance of National Bird Week. We would like to compliment Miss Harris and Mrs. Milford for these and for the other nice bulletin boards.

BASEBALL OUTLOOK IS "FAIR"

Baseball prospects at Montevallo are looking "fair" says Coach Fisher.

Although losing five of last year's Fifth District championship team, the Bulldogs have Bill White at short, Donald Bunn at first, Ted Gentry in the outfield and Root Genry on the mound, returning from last year's regulars.

"Pitching should be fair with five boys out for this position. Of this five, Bobby Fancher and John Hallman look like the best bets to help Genry in mound assignments," says Fisher.

BULLDOGS vs. TOWN TEAM THIS AFTERNOON!

TIPS ON BUNTING

1. Three types of bunting--squeeze, drag and sacrifice.

Should be practiced more.

3. Two methods--holding hands on handle and running one hand down about trademark.

Hold the bat level. 4.

High balls are 5. generally hard to bunt.

6. For the sacrifice turn the body around.

Do not push bat toward ball--allow the speed of the pitcher to carry the ball the necessary distance.

8. The best place to lay the bunt down is toward third.

9. Practice a fast getaway after bunt.

10 The drag bunt is used when infield is playing deep.

11 On the squeeze play the batter must bunt the ball regardless of where it is coming.

When you run your hand down the bat 12 to the trademark, you play catch with the pitcher with that hand.

13 A bunter can help his batting average by outguessing the defense.

14 Left-handed bunters have a little advantage.

15 When using the drag bunt or using the bunt to get a hit, you should not turn facing pitcher unless you can't bunt otherwise.

16 The bunt should be the easiest hit.

STOP SCHOOL VANDALISM Stop school vandalism!

Harrell.

Do you know what school vandalism is? Do you know that it is going on in our school today?

Vandalism is writing on walls, marking on desks, and tearing up school equipment.

Many instances may be seen in our classrooms and on the school grounds. Often you commit this crime without thinking.

In many classrooms walls are being marked on and school equipment is being destroyed carelessly.

A good example of what is happening to our school grounds is the rough treatment that is given the archery target. And not to be overlooked in this group is the usage of the front lawn as a driveway.

Stop and think! Is our school being destroyed because of your thoughtlessness?

Be sure you are not the guilty one!

KELLYGRAMS By Agee Kelly

I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone for the wonderful cooperation you have given the Student Council this year. We feel that the Student Council has had a very successful year because you have all worked with us.

Serving as president of the student body has been a great honor and a privilege for me. I have enjoyed it. I hope that you, students and teachers, will continue the good work next year, for it's your interest and cooperation that makes the Student Council the active organization it is.

It is generally felt that the first production of SCHOOL DAZE was a success, and I would like to thank you for the wonderful job you did. There was a lot of work to be done, and you did it. Working together to make our activities succeed

To all those students who took part in SCHOOL DAZE we owe a compliment for a grand performance.

Congratulations to the two shorthand winners, Ann Cox and Doris Cunningham. They are now members of Order of Gregg Artists.

The five girls who entered the state-wide typing contest in Birmingham didn't "set the world on fire", but they certainly had a wonderful experience.

Stop! Think! Ask yourself, why is there paper on the floor? Am I the one who puts it there? Paper on classroom floors and in the halls surely doesn't look attractive to you, nor to your fellow students -- and certainly not to our visitors. Waste cans are distributed throughout the building, so please walk those few extra steps? Thanks!

will play a great part in making us succeed as a school.

WHAT'S UP, FOLKS? Guess what, it's spring; and boys, you know what a young man's fancy is supposed to turn to in spring. Yep! The same thing the girls have been thinking of all year long.

Joanna Sharp is really taking advantage of spring (with a little help from the University).

The Juniors have begun their sly, soreful work on the prom and the seniors are keeping their ears open to try to detect a word concerning the theme. You won't have to wait much longer!

I wonder why Ruth Allen is suddenly so fond of red convertibles.

The college lake has been a mighty popular place lately. That's where Lois and Annette got such a wonderful tan.

That was a mighty fine square dance last Saturday night, wasn't it? Don't forget, there is going to be another fine one this Saturday. See you then.

WHAT DO YOU THINK? Do you think Montevallo High should have a chapter of the National Honor Society?

This is what our students and teachers had to say about it:

Pat Kelly--"I think we should have one because students will work harder and I see no reason why they should not be recognized and rewarded for their hard work."

Miss Jeanne Gibbons-"I think it has a place, but not in our school. There's a danger of its becoming too exclusive, with many hurt feelings as a result."

Peggy Lucas--"I don't see that that would help much or hurt anything."

Miss Anne Grove --"T think that the students who show leadership and have a high scholastic standing should be recognized in some manner. If it were handled in such a way that ill feeling would not result, it would be fine."

Ann Bice--"I think it would help. would make students work harder."

Miss Vinnie Lee Walker -- "I disapprove. It is almost impossible to tell who should belong and who should not. It exaggerates the importance of grades. It makes a distinction between the students in and the ones out."

THE STORY BEHIND THE HIGH SCHOOL SWING BAND

Montevallo High School's first swing bands were organized by students, and rehearsals were held in homes or in Alabama College buildings.

A later band was organized by Jimmy Henning, class of '44, and the members were from both high school and college.

In 1946 when boys were admitted to Alabama College, three G. I's who played cornet, tenor sax, and trombone, assisted Mr. Young and some high school students in organizing the first group using standard instrumentation. There were two also saxes, one tenor sax, three trumpets, trombone, drums and piano.

Since that time leaders have been Ted Ziolkowski, Mike Mahan and at present, Johnny Ziolkowski.

The swing band is sponsored by the regular band, supervised by the director, and is considered a prime opportunity for advanced players to gain further experience and skill on their instruments.

Members of the swing band are Johnny Ziolkowski, Elbert Mahaffey, Harriet Kendrick, trumpets; Freda Kendrick, Francis Klotzman and Mary Sue Cates--Saxes; Mary K. Cox, clarinet; Mr. Young, trombone, Mary K. Hicks, piano; and Henry Emfinger, drums. Joy Holcomb and Kenny Maxwell are vocalists.

CHOOSING YOUR CAREER

Have you ever given choosing a career much thought? It is well to have some idea in mind as to " what you are planning to do before you graduate from high school.

In selecting a career you should stop to think. Ask yourself, "Am I suited for the type of work involved?" "Did I select it because my friend did?" Perhaps the most important question to ask yourself is "will I be happy at this work?"

Today the seniors are faced with the problem of what to do for the future. Some of them plan to go on to school; others have finished their formal education and are planning careers in the armed forces, in various fields or as homemakers. Those who chose early in high school and took courses related to this chosen field are a lot happier than those who have the whole task ahead of them now.

Plan now!

KELLYGRAMS

By Agee Kelly As graduation is only two weeks away. I would like to direct this article today to next year's juniors and seniors. You are in two of the best years of life right now. If you use them to the best advantage, they will pay off in the long run.

The main things you should do are to study and do all your homework as well as take part in every school activity that you possibly can. You will get much more from school if you aren't content to be a "deadhead." Take an active interest in all class projects and do your very best work every time you attempt anything.

You will have many opportunities to do outside work. My advice is take every chance that comes your way if you have time to do the job as it should be done. Above all, keep your eyes open and your mind on your business.

BULLDOG GROWLS The junior class would like to say "thank you" to Coach Fisher and Mr. Seegers. sponsors; and to all the teachers who gave such wonderful cooperation on the juniorsenior prom.

Did you notice the bulletin board display called "Personality Plus" which was shown in the front hall recently? Our compliments to Mrs. Milford! She always keeps that bulletin board attractive.

Miss Gibbons' art classes also had an interesting display, "Design with Materials." It's amazing what one can do with artistic ability.

Drive, but drive safely! Join in Montevallo's campaign for safety by observing all traffic laws. doing this, you will not be helping yourself alone but others also. Get that license if you are one of the guilty unlicensed drivers.

Have you been doing (Cont'd. p. 4.)

WHAT'S UP, FOLKS? Well, the Junior-Senior Prom is over, and are the juniors glad! It was fun but a whole lot of work. At least some of the seniors were surprised to find a fish pond in the middle of the floor instead of a wishing well, and real red sails on the stage.

Just three more weeks to Montevallo. 'till freedom. Won't it be wonderful? body coming to summer school?

The Journalism class really enjoyed the trip to the Birmingham News Tuesday. Congratulation to Rulane Peters for being elected cheerleader.

Spring fever has really hit hard at M. H. S. and Sigrid Lund's case seems to be the worst yet. Anita Bradley and Durene Harper are sparkling around the third finger left hand. Neither has announced that day yet. We wish them luck and happiness.

Mary Sue Cates, Dorvin Roden, and Jade Higgins are planning a big weekend at the Methodist retreat at Oak Mountain.

The Square Dance last Saturday night was pretty successful. majorettes made about $80 toward their uniform fund.

That's all for this year, folks. I hear the senior class is using the next issue of-Spotlight for their last will and Testament. Prophecy, etc. Congratulations to all the seniors and I'll be seeing you at the swimming pool this summer. Upsi Daisy and dominoes.

Teachers Of The Week Mr. Theron Fisher, coach, was born in Sparta, Tennessee. He attended Rison High School, Huntsville, Ala. He received his A.B. degree from Birmingham Southern College in 1935.

Mr. Fisher says his most exciting moment of life was when he made All Dixie Conference Tackle in 1932 and 1934.

Mr. Melton Thorton, M.H.S. Agriculture teacher, was born in Lauderdale County, Alabama. He received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Auburn. He has also attended Alabama College, University of Illinois, and University of Alabama.

Before coming to Montevallo, Mr. Thornton taught at Anderson Junior High School in 1933, and Lexington, Alabama, 1933 to 1948. He has been in Montevallo five years.

Mr. Thornton says his most exciting moment came when youngsters began calling him "Mr." when some were elmost as old as he was when he started teaching.

Mr. Thornton's hobbies are deer hunting or (standing) fishing, rodeos, magic, and dramatics. He enjoys large gatherings, field days and the like. "Big Tent" or the carnival will usually cause him to feel venturesome.

JOURNALISM CLASS . VISITS BIRMINGHAM NEWS

The journalism class, accompanied by Mr. Guy Milford and Miss Lillian Hunt, made a field trip to Birmingham Tuesday for the purpose of visiting the Birmingham News.

In the words of the group, here is their story.

"We visited the press rooms where huge machines cut, print, fold and count the papers. Then we saw the editorial department where the editors of the different sections were at work.

We were taken to the dark room where pictures were being developed. The odor was almost unbearable. The guide jokingly told us that the NEWS had a home in California for those who had worked in the dark room for about five years so they could get away from the odor.

The copy room was the last place we visited. There the steel plates were made. Jimmy Busby somehow managed to get someone to make a plate with his name on it.

The trip was a success as a whole, but Ruth Allen says that her spike heels were not too good for climbing steps and for climbing over rolls of paper."

JUNIORS ENTERTAIN

The junior class entertained the seniors at a dance Friday night, May 8. Music was furnished by Wayne Willis' Orchestra from Childersburg.

The theme, Red Sails in the Sunset," was carried out in the decorations. The leadout which featured class officers, came from the stage which was a large boat with red sails.

Boat houses from which refreshments were served, pirate waitresses and miniature swimming pools added to the salty theme.

BULLDOG GROWLS (Con) your part toward supporting the baseball team. It seems the attendance at games has been mighty slack all season. The team is good--in case you didn't know. Come on out and watch them in action. They need to win two more games to win the county championship. They play Vincent this afternoon and Columbiana Monday afternoon.

Have you noticed how bad the curtain in the auditorium looks? Wonder what can be done about it. This might be something for the Student Council to think about next year.

Miss Harris' flower bed outside the auditorium certainly adds to the beauty of the school. I have noticed many bouquets throughout the building that look as if they came from there.

BIOLOGY CLASSES TO VISIT MEDICAL CENTER

The biology classes and Miss Ethel Harris, science instructor, will make a field trip to the Birmingham Medical Center on Thursday of next week. While there, the group will visit the Crippled Children's Clinic, Jefferson Hillman Hospital, the County Health Department, the Dental School and the new Veteran's Hospital.

The classes hope to gain a better understanding of their present unit on the functions of the human body.

FHA HOLDS INSTALLATION

The F.H.A. held its final meeting of the year fourth period Thursday in the home economics building.

Officers for next year were installed. They are Anita Bradley president; Mary K. Hicks, vice president; Beverly Taff, secretary; Carolyn Edwards, treasurer; Beverly Doyle, parliamentarian; Bobbie Dea Galloway, historian; Patty Davis and Clara Young, song leaders; Barbara Winslett, reporter.

The band and glee club concert announced on the front page will cost 25¢ for students and 50¢ for adults. It was announced as free through an error.

JUNIOR I'S PRESENT ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Montevallo High's Junior I class gave the rest of the school and visitors an idea of some of the special interests they have followed this year at an interesting assembly held Thursday in the high school auditorium.

The program opened with Gail Farris acting as Master of Ceremonies. Margaret Price and Sandra Rochester gave the devotional including the singing of a duet.

This was followed by a brief history of the leadership in the classes. This included a group of students who had made a lasting contribution in the work of beautifying the grounds.

The good work of some twenty-four band members was shown in their two musical numbers with Mr. Young directing. Outlets offered for expression in literature and creative writing were demonstrated by Peggy Edwards' book review and two original compositions of Betty Ann Winslett and Margaret Price.

Interest rose when various members of the senior class were imitated. The program was climaxed by a tribute to the seniors.

COLONELS SWAMP BULLDOGS

Showing no mercy, the Colonels from Woodlawn lashed the Montevallo Bulldogs 9-0 here Saturday night.

Woodlawn started their attack early by sending 10 men to bat and scoring 5 runs in the top of the first. They collected 4 base knocks and 2 free passes to count for the runs in their big first inning. In the second, Gilbert, Woodlawn's star first baseman, hit one for a circuit blow driving Jones, who had walked, in ahead of Their final runs came in the fourth as a result of 2 doubles and a single.

Three scattered hits afforded the Montevallo fans all the excitement they had for the evening. Donald Bunn singled in the first with 2 out and died on first as the next batter grounded to the pitcher. Woolley hit a single in the fifth with 2 out, and was left stranded at second as again the next batter grounded to the pitcher. Montevallo's only scoring threat came in the sixth when Genry singled with only one away. R. L. Anthony walked sending Genry to second. Hicks, pinch hitting for Gentry, went down the "K" route. Jimmy Winslett walked and Genry reached 3rd, but died there as Alexander, in the role of pinch hitter, also went down swinging.

IT'S UP TO YOU

The Spotlight is what you make it!
This year we changed the staff organization by having an editor for each page.
Each page editor was responsible for seeing that his page met the deadline.

The editor's job this . year was to write the front page. Actually the editor doesn't do this, it is usually the responsibility of the news editor. Next year we suggest having a news editor who will be in charge of all news. By making this change, the editor will write the editorials.

Reporters have the job of collecting news, interviewing, copyreading and rewriting stories.

People who are interested in the business angle of the paper, work on circulation, files, and exchange papers.

If you are interested and are planning to join the Spotlight staff next year, come in with an interest in the paper and with the idea of doing your part to make it a first-class paper.

When you work on the paper you are accomplishing two things. You are performing a service for the school as well as receiving training in journalism.

BULLDOGS GROWLS

As this school year closes, let's take a look at its highlights.

In September we added Driver's Training to our school program; Monteyallo, Shaw, and Lovelady Motor Companies gave the F.F.A. a truck; and, of course, we can't forget that the first issue of the Spotlight came out on September 26.

We observed Religious Emphasis Week, September 29-October 3. October created quite some excitement for the seniors as they ordered their rings.

A whirlwind of festivities came in November. Montevallo High School sent four delegates to the Southern Association of Student Councils October 30 to November 1. Montevallo's Lions Club entertained our football squad with a pre-Thanksgiving dinner, and local merchants

HAPPY VACATION!! Staff

KELLYGRAMS By Agee Kelly

Tonight as I write this editorial, I can look back over my days in school and see that we seniors are coming to the end of a period of wonderful experiences. Once in a while we feel that we are glad we are finishing school, but when we think deeply about leaving Montevallo High School, it is with regret. Most of you who aren't seniors think talk of this kind is not true, but you'll see what I mean when it is your turn.

I sincerely hope some of you who read this will take heed and do better work while you have the chance. If you want to get the most out of school you must learn each year. You cannot wait until the last two weeks of your senior year to do the work. It just doesn't work. So long, and may you have the best of luck.

and patrons of the school furnished food for a banquet. November 7 was the annual Homecoming game with Calera as opponents. The parade and dance were both successful.

In December Santa's helpers were none other than the senior Democracy classes. They sponsored a toy project and a basket project to help the needy children. Something new was added to our auditorium; the Coca-Cola Company helped us get a scoreboard which proved very helpful during basketball season.

Outstanding in January was the honor of having Mr. Husno Argun, visitor from Turkey, speak on "Educational practices, social customs and religious differences of Turkey. He spoke at an assembly on January 30. Peggy Lucas, president of the senior class, was chosen Good Citizenship Girl of 1953.

In February Dan Whetstone won the Shelby County American Legion Oratorical Contest. He spoke on "The Constitution--Ours to Defend."

A HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1953

In September of 1941. twenty of this year's senior class began their educational career in Montevallo in the first grade. Thirteen were from Montevallo, five from Wilton, and two from Spring Creek. Since then the class has increased its size to 47 members. It gained one member in the fourth grade, 13 in the seventh, one in the eighth, eight in the ninth, two in the tenth, one in the eleventh, and one in the twelfth.

The first six years were spent in real hard work. Although we did get one enjoyable trip to the capitol when we reached the halfway mark. From then on we have had the pleasure of at least one class trip each year.

When the fall of '47 came, we thought we were getting into the professional part of our schooling. We would be in high school. We had dreamed of the happiness of having a different teacher each period. But to our disappointment we were kept in the same room for nearly three periods at a time! Our hard work eventually relieved this pain.

Our class began to receive its mark of approval in the eighth grade when Joy Holcombe and Eleanor Mitchell were chosen majorettes. They have held this recognition ever since. Joanna Sharp later joined them and Joy became head majorette.

From our Jr. III class,
Ann Cox and Florence Daly were selected as cheerleaders

Council. This was also the year that Lois Hoffman and Joanna Sharp were struggling to speed up their twelve-year term in order to graduate with us.

Then came our junior year. Of course, Agee became president of Student Council. Kenneth Smitherman was elected vice president. Delmus Anthony and Wanda Farris were elected as treasurer and secretary. Our Junior-Senior prom was a great success. The theme was "Stairway to the Stars!"

Ann Cox won the title of "Miss F.H.A." Barbara Knowles, Lois Hoffman, Annette McBurnette, and Dan Johnson were added to the cheerleading squad. Our representatives to Girls State were Joy Holcombe and Eleanor Mitchell, to Boys State, Agee Kelly and Kenneth Smitherman.

At last we became the mighty seniors—the ones now wondering "what else there is to know." Our rings arrived just in time to complete our Christmas, on December 24. The strangest part about it was that Miss Walker didn't know that we had gotten them until we showed her.

We presented our play,
"The Late Christopher Bean,"
on March 27. The cast included Rose Rakes, Dan Whetstone, Agee Kelly,
Wanda Farris, Louie Reach,
Annette McBurnette, Calvin
Hatcher, Joanna Sharp, and Bobby Milstead.

The Who's Who featured Donald Bunn and Ann Cox as best looking boy and cutest girl; Delmus Anthony and Rosemary Splawn as most athletic; Elaine Lucas and Bill Kirby as best dancers; Agee Kelly and Wanda Farris as boy and girl most likely to succeed; and Earl McNeel and Peggy Lucas as most popular.

Kenneth Smitherman (Continued)

became editor of Spotlight. Dan Whetstone a sounty speaking contest and Florence Daly was chosen as "Miss F.H.A." for Shelby County. The Good Citizenship title went to Peggy Lucas. Kenneth Smitherman and Eleanor Mitchell were proclaimed the best dressed in our class.

The football team suffered the loss of ten boys due to graduation. These are Ted Gentry, Jimmy Harrell, Earl McNeel, Bobby
Milstead, Agee Kelly, Bill
Kirby, Mickey Lovelady,
Charles Daviston, Delmus
Anthony, and Louie Reach.

As seniors, it is our pleasure and happy privilege to announce that since we have been practicing our commencement program, we have a faint idea that we may be able to get our PhD*, June 2.

Despite the past years of hard work and drudgery, we can say that this year h has been the golden clasp that has bound together our never-to-be-forgotten "School-Daze."
* Pretty hard digging.

Another February event was the Shelby County Basketball Tournament. Montevallo took the trophy for the third straight year.

Also in February Sigrid Lund, Johnny Z, and Marcia Trumbauer were chosen to play in the All-State Band in Tuscaloosa.

In March our F.F.A. quartet took first place in the county contest. The Band and Glee Club gave a joint concert on March 10.

auditorium March 20. The

A LOOK INTO THE FUTURE

It's Memorial Day, 1963, a beautiful sunny day at the Indianapolis Speedway. Well, 100k here on the program, three of the auto racers are some old friends of ours. In the starting line-up we Bill Kirby, Bobby Milstead, and Houston Ingram. We'll wish them luck and go place our bet with the bookie, "Cheatin' Charlie" Daviston. Now let's take our seats and see the race. There they go! Boy, what an exciting race! Now we see Agee Kelly, President of the Eighth National Bank, present the winner--none other than Bill Kirby and the proudest one at the race seems to be his wife. the former Annette Mc-Burnette with their three "little Racers". There's Glennie Dee Booth taking care of the children for them.

Let's take a look over the crowd. There's Bobby Joe Thomas, a marine general, taking care of his five children. Billy G. Harris, a bus driver, must have left his four at home since he is alone. Standing beside them is Donald Bunn, Kentucky's basketball coach and still a bachelor. Who is that he's making eyes at? Why--it's Betty Joan Harris who teaches typing in the same school. I hear she's available again after her third divorce. She undoubtedly got her coaching from the famous love consultant. Laura Ann Hicks. Gee! who are all those little "eskimos" scampering over there? Why, they must be Mrs. Jo Ann Smith's four children. She's looking mighty happy about Clayton coming home from Alaska soon. Speaking of the Air (Continued)

Force, it seems to have claimed quite a few of our men. Eugene "Bunch" Lawley was just recently made a Commanding General. His WAF secretary is Alma Nichols. Also in the Air Force and now stationed on the Island of Goocaramonga are Jack Pickett and Jimmy Harrell.

I just spied Dan Whetstone who is using his talent for speaking in an excellent manner -- he is a barker for a large circus There are two little secretaries -- Rita Day and Ann Cox. Ann is chief typist for Allen (Bill) Realty Company and I understand she's the boss's wife.

As we near our car I notice Florence Daly who finally managed to get Mickey Lovelady, owner of a large filling station. across the Mississippi line and then ended up marrying the Justice of Peace. As we get into our car I take a last look and see none other than Wanda Farris Conover, the wife of a big oil man she met while she was at Baylor. Directly in back of her I see the famous scientist and discoverer of the Balomoratex Wonder Drug, Jo Ann Phillips, who has really gone places.

Now we're on our way home and seeing familiar names on the fronts of buildings on the right and left of us. First, we see a beautiful, modern drug store owned by Kenneth Smitherman. Then we notice an Italian restaurant owned and operated by Ramona Nannini. Just to the right of Nannini's famous eating place is the office building of Lucas, Lucas, Lucas, and Lucas Law Firm. Of course, the attorneys are none other than Peggy, Joyce, Elaine and Pauline.

BAND AND GLEE CLUB (Cont'd) a composition by Mr. V. T. Young, was played by Johnny Siolkowski.

The Glee Club's program included "Singin' in the Rain," "Whisperin:" "Sweet and Low," and "Charmaine."

The Swing band played for a dance held in the auditorium after the concert.

A LOOK INTO (Continued) Under the Lucas's offices are three very attractive little shops. One is the art studio of Rose Rakes who specializes in painting "dead fish." The next shop is that of Joanna Sharp. proprietor and owner of the "Look Sharp Modeling School." The third shop is the headquarters of Joy Holcomb's reducing farm.

Driving on through a small town, we see the studo of Eleanor Mitchell's fashion designing. Her speciality is styling little sweaters for poodle dogs. Just beside her studio is June Woolley's beauty parlor. June cuts the hair for the customers of Eleanor's shop.

As we drive on toward home we see two huge billboards, one advertising Milton Jeter's "Weed Killer" and the other. The Harkins "We Sweep-um Clean" Broom Factory.

Now that we're home, let's turn on the television. I'm rather weary of seeing so many old friends. Well, of all things, Dan Johnson is the little cheerleader for Soulsom bread. Next on the program is the kiddie show with Ted Gentry as the emcee and Lois Hoffman as piano player. My, they've been

BEST WISHES. SENIORS

We would like to take this opportunity to wish all the seniors the best of luck as they leave Montevallo High School.

We hope each of you will go forward in reaching your goal of accomplishments in the future.

You seniors have taken part in nearly all of the school's activities this year. All four Student Council officers were from the senior class, six of the cheerleaders, and three of the majorettes.

A good part of the football team, basketball and baseball teams have been seniors, not to mention the F.F.A. quartet.

Of course, we who are left behind will miss you. Graduation is a turning point in life. When you go around the bend and out of sight, we hope you find the new life filled with interesting new experiences.

A LOOK INTO (Continued) reminder that the Grand Ole' Opry will be on television at 7:00 tonight with the famous singer and guitar player, Calvin Hatcher. This announcement was made by Earl Mc-Neel. Now, we're really in for a treat -- the world's champion lady wrestler, Rosemary Splawn, is wrestling next on TV. I notice that her manager is Nelda Arnold and in the crowd I see Louie Reach and his new bride, the former, Barbara Knowles.

What a day! Who would have thought as we stood on the stage on June 2, 1953 and melted under caps and gowns, that the future would hold such interesting lives for all of us. Oh, well! To bed.

KNOW YOUR BUS DRIVERS By Calvin Hatcher

Do you know your bus driver?

Do you realize how far the bus drivers travel each day to get you to school? We have seven drivers. Each driver has a big responsibility getting you to and from school. Here are the Montevallo drivers and a few facts about their daily job.

Mr, Stanley Mahan is the driver for the Moore's Cross Roads area. He drives about thirty miles each day and brings in approximately 55 students. Mr. Mahan is also manager of the buses.

Donald Ray Bunn, that hot first baseman for the Bulldogs, is the driver for the Dogwood area. He drives a total of about 25 miles a day and has about 55 riders. Donald is a senior.

Bobby Milstead is a senior and is driver for the Dry Valley area. He brings in about 95 students each day. Bobby's route covers approximately thirty miles.

Houston Ingram is also a senior and is the driver for the Spring Creek area. He drives about 28 miles a day and has approximately 50 riders.

Eilly Glenn Harris, a senior, drives the Pearidge route. He has about sixty riders and drives approximately thirty miles.

Jack Pickett is a senior and is driver for the Boothton area. Jack has the longest route of all; he has approximately forty miles to drive and brings in about 60 riders.

Calvin Hatcher drives the Wilton bus. He has an average of about 95 riders per day and travels 30 miles. SENIORS LEAVE SUGGESTIONS

Forty-five seniors, recently, were given an opportunity to express their opinion about some things before leaving.

Here is their reaction to some questions:

Do you think students should feel any responsibility for the general appearance of this school building and grounds?
Yes-45, No-0.

Do you think more students should take a responsible part in student activities? Yes-45, No-0.

Do you think we should have various clubs for the students--such as Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, Future Teachers of America, Hobby Clubs, etc.? Yes-42, No-3.

Do you think we should publish each nine weeks an honor roll of those students who make an average of "B" or above? Yes-32, No-13.

Do you think we should have a chapter of a nationally-recognized honor socie*y? Yes-30, No-14. One had no opinion on this question.

When asked what they liked most about Montevallo High School, a big part of the seniors said they liked the friendly atmosphere and the willingness of the teachers to help the students at all times.

The seniors made some suggestions too. They think foreign languages, speech, bookkeeping II, and vocational classes should be added to the course of study here. They would install cold water fountains, buy new stage curtains, build a field house, place adequate lighting in all rooms and put clocks all over the place.
